Happy Holidays and Happy New Year to All from Peggy and Jim Dixon. 2013 has been a very good year for us. Our family met in Hawaii in December to celebrate three birthdays (Peggy's the 7th, Will's the 21st and Patrick's the 29th) and Christmas together. It was a wonderful holiday. The photo above was taken Dec. 7, 2013 on the North Shore beach on the island of Oahu in Hawaii where they were having huge 15-20 foot high waves and a surfing contest. Left to Right: Daniel, Brittney, Patrick holding little William Patrick, Jim and Peggy Dixon.

Patrick is stationed in Honolulu at Hickam AFB flying a C17 all over the Pacific and other places too. He and Brittney are enjoying life in Paradise. Our little grandson Will is a cutie, learning to talk and asserting his own darling two year old personality and independence. Dan is still in Seattle successfully selling Universe Sandbox and working on a new version. We also all got together in Colorado and Rocky Mountain National Park in April plus meeting for our Niece's wedding in California in November with a short visit to Dan in Seattle. Otherwise, life has happily been business and work as usual. May the New Year be successful and happy and healthy for us all. Blessed Be. Peggy and Jim Dixon - 2013
